NEXT WEEK  "Vaudeville to TV"

Cliff Soubier, WENR-TV clown of “Super Circus” tells his rise from vaudeville to television in next week’s TV Forecast Magazine, on sale Friday at leading newsstands. Also: “Video’s Tallest Gal,” a picture-story of Mildred Hughes, girl Friday to Victor Borge.
NEW YORK—Latest top secret information leaking out of Washington is that the freeze on new TV stations may thaw out ahead of schedule. Optimists figure that, come fall, the ban on construction will be lifted. . . . Fans of Ken Murray's lively show will get a fresh treat Sept. 8 when they glimpse Ken's newest addition to his Glamour-lovelies—blue eyed Pat Conway. She's 20 years old, an expert swimmer and top model. . . . A major battle of showmanship will take place soon, when CBS pits Frank Sinatra against NBC's Milton Berle at the same time. Both stars have tremendous followings. . . . ABC will unveil a major dramatic show Oct. 3 titled "Celanese Playhouse," featuring the works of such topflight playwrights as Robert Sherwood, Elmer Rice, S. N. Behrman and Maxwell Anderson. . . . Super sleuth Dick Tracy will be seen on TV soon.

Lovers of pop music are welcoming the video return of orch leader Sammy Kaye, who's starting on CBS July 28. . . . "Blind Date" may be cancelled out in favor of a film dramatic series. Sept. 27 is the crisis day. . . . Comic Steve Allen is getting his daytime show squeezed into 45 minutes from an hour length. Reason is that CBS has two more soap operas coming up and needs the time. . . . "Broadway Open House" is reported on the downskids, since "Beanbag" Jerry Lester left. His replacement, Jack E. Leonard, is having trouble grasping the format. Here's a hint of how lightly the rival networks consider the revamped "Open House"—ABC is launching a Cincinnati disk jockey, name of Paul Dixon, at the same hour.

"Studs' Place" fans can stop breathing hard. Its coffee sponsor has renewed for the summer months. . . . Bev Younger, who plays Gracie the waitress, is picking up fan clubs among the hash slinger set. . . . Inflation has hit the TV guest list. Here's what the top stars ask for a one-time appearance: Jimmy Durante $11,000, Ethel Merman $5,000, Margaret Truman $2,500, Billy Eckstine $3,500, and Helen Hayes $3,500. Insiders claim that Bob Hope, Bing Crosby and Arthur Godfrey could get close to $25,000. . . . NBC's big hush-hush project is a 26 week series of films depicting the fighting history of the U.S. Navy. Watch for it in January. . . . Comic Garry Moore defines marriage as a hit or miss proposition. Says Garry: "If a girl doesn't make a hit, she remains a miss."

Bobby Ellis, who plays Dexter in "Meet Corliss Archer," has been in show business since the age of five. He was too small to reach the microphone, and played his first radio part standing on a soap box. . . . "Super Circus" clown Nick Francis is such a network favorite with kids he can command his own figure with any circus anywhere. . . . Peter Donald has assembled a raft of promising young talent called the "Improvisers" to replace "Mama" during the summer. Pleasant subbing. . . . John Cameron Swayze observes that in these days of inflation, a girl doesn't know whether to marry for butter or wurst. . . . Mystery note in Chicago—Dave Garway sent an urgent wire to his new sponsor Armour for a case of Dial soap. No one can figure out why. . . . Pianist Victor Borge's favorite hobby is farming.
FOUR years ago, Chicagoans got their first peek at a madman known as Ernie Simon, when the WBKB comic made his television debut from the ladies lounge of the Sheraton hotel with singer Dorothy Shay. Since then, Ernie has been steadily accumulating a troupe of characters that regularly visit his man-on-the-street program, reportedly the only show with fan clubs organized in mental institutions.

Now slimmed down to a mere 186 pounds, after dragging 230 around the curbstones of Chicago, Ernie is being besieged by women admirers and it makes him mad. They don't want him, they want his diet for reducing!

Ernie came to the Windy City in November 1946, just 50 years after his friend, Bob Elson, had graduated from college. He was a skinny lad whose fame as a radio disc jockey in Washington and Baltimore catapulted him to a post on WJJD. Before that time he had been a vaudeville comedian, doing singing and straight bits with Mousey Garner, one of the original 3 Stooges. Ernie had plunged into vaudeville when he was 13, playing the Minsky Wheel, a 26 week barnstorming tour of the country. At 16 he encouraged a mustache with a little eyebrow pencil, and has been wearing it ever since, a Simon trademark. He needed the mustache to look older.

At 31, Ernie has seen 18 years of show business. Next month fans will be able to see him in Allied Artist's new motion picture, "Disc Jockey," making its premiere in 31 cities on August 23, a musical film starring Ginny Simms, Tom Drake and Michael O'Shea. Simon and Chicagoan Eddie Hubbard play Simon and Hubbard in the movie, which is warning enough.

It was Lou Comavitz, famous director of "Kukla, Fran and Ollie," that helped Ernie break into television. Now Simon's show, "Curbstone Cutup" is the oldest, continuous show in Chicago. Its present sponsor, Cole-Finder Mercury, have just renewed the program for another period on channel 4.

Ernie is happily married to the former Patti Lyons, a brunette beauty. The two live in a near north side apartment.

Even Patti doesn't know where Ernie digs up his guests on his Monday thru Friday TV show, like Jim Tree, Charles Homer Bill, Lucky Luciano, and Irwin Berke. Jim Tree has been introduced as Godfrey's summer replacement and the ghost writer for Mayor Kennelly. He's been reported off to Washington to complain about his $100,000 income tax, and in the same breath is still waiting for that free dinner promised him by Mike Fritzel. Jim's neatest trick is reading off a list of names of his friends, who reciprocate by sending him bottles of hair tonic, or something just as powerful.

Charles Homer Bill, the farm boy from Sheffield, tells of his woman and animal life. His favorite story concerns Sheffield's windiest day. "Why it was so windy my hen laid the same egg seven times!" It's nothing to see Charles Homer wearing ear muffs on a warm day.

OLD TIMERS know Paul Whiteman is the “King of Jazz.” But today’s youth know him better as lovable “Pops” Whiteman, the bossman of WENR-TV’s weekly “Teen Club.” Perhaps it’s only logical that Whiteman, in his early heyday a great experimenter with new ways of music, should now be vitally concerned with the citizens of the future.

The “TV Teen Club,” seen every Saturday at 7 p.m. on channel 7, is really an outcropping of Whiteman’s interest in fighting juvenile delinquency in the nearby town of Lambertville, N.J. He opened a teen center there and drew such an enthusiastic response that a larger project was established in Philadelphia.

The “TV Teen Club” show is broadcast from Town Hall, and an actual party is held there each Saturday night, including refreshments, games, contests and dancing. The evening lasts from 7 to 11 p.m., and Pops Whiteman emcees the entire show.

Currently the brightest star in Pops’ collection of youngsters is Nancy Lewis, the 17-year-old charmer who helps Whiteman with the emcee job and also vocalizes on the program. Nancy was a logical substitute when Margo Whiteman married and left the program in March, 1950. Nancy won a beauty contest at the age of five, and later went into modeling work.

Nancy has inherited some of her musical ability from her father, a Philadelphia police officer who plays in the police band. Nancy joined the show as a featured singer in 1949, and when Margo left, was an overwhelming favorite for mistress of ceremonies.
Paul Whiteman has long been known as a producer of outstanding talent. In bygone days, he has launched such stars as Tommy and Jimmy Dorsey, Mildred Bailey and Morton Downey. He's getting the same remarkable results with the "TV Teen Club," his most recent contribution to show business being little Junie Keegan.

But even Pops set a new record when he blossomed forth with tiny Andrea McLaughlin, just three and a half years old. This little singing miss is already an outstanding choice of the fans, and appears regularly on the program. Her TV success is surprising every one but Andrea herself, who always knew what she wanted to do—at the age of two, she befuddled her dancing teacher by singing instead.

Her mother dropped the child at Whiteman's doorstep, and Pops inserted her into the program the next week. Andrea swept the competition four straight times and became a program regular.

Junie Keegan is only 14, but started singing at the age of eight. When Junie was eleven, Junie broke into the "TV Teen Club" lineup and won every first prize for six straight months. She's a natural beauty with light brown curls and blue eyes.

Despite this wealth of talent and charm, Pops Whiteman is still the big attraction of the show. Very much like "ol man river," he keeps rolling along, year after year—the grand old man of show business.

Whiteman was also seen on the "Paul Whiteman Revue" every Sunday on WENR-TV, but is off that show for the summer months.

Letters to the Editor

All letters must be signed; names will be withheld if requested.

I'm a long way off from being a prude, but I think TV is getting to the point where it needs censorship. Only last night my mother-in-law said let's turn the program off. It was only minutes old and one fellow had three glasses of beer, another washed down four shots, and lots more were to come. Every time an actress has a lull in the program she lights a cigarette. This is not good for children. . . . We can't evade the fact that in real life this does go on a lot among some people, but why pour it on in TV? (Please do not print my name, only initials.)

Hinsdale, Ill.

In a recent addition a certain girl said something should be done about Buster Crabbe being on so many channels at once. She said she wouldn't mind it if he was in swimming trunks instead of in a rocket for the moon. . . . I have always admired him and would rather see him seated on the back of a horse. Why I wrote is because I didn't like the attitude this girl took.

Bristol, Wis.

BEVERLY ELLIS

For the past weeks I have been watching a puppet show called Breezy, Don and Vera. The humor is very subtle and their show is well put together.

Chicago, Ill.

WARREN FREIBERG

Being one of your first out-of-town charter subscribers since its inception, I wish to continue my subscription for two more years. The reason we take TV Forecast is because it is newsworthy. We have been reading another magazine here, but it just does not compare. Yours is more informative, even out here in Nebraska!

West Point, Neb.

WARREN R. DAVEE

Thanks for the new women's section, to what I had already thought of as a complete publication. With this interesting addition I am sure others feel as I do it's like getting two for the price of one.

CELEBRITIES HAVE FUN AT BOAT PARTY

CANDID scenes were recorded by the photographer when Chicago television stars were guests recently at a Celebrity Lake Cruise, under the auspices of TV Forecast Magazine and the C & B Steamship Lines. The event was originally scheduled to welcome the new excursion boat "Tanis" but arrival of the vessel was delayed, and plans changed the last minute. With several hundred celebrities about to invade the Michigan ave. docks, a fleet of power launches was called into action with the help of Capt. Art Agra of the Mercury boat line and Thomas J. McGuire, president of C & B. The party was on again and after several hours of ploughing up Lake Michigan, returned in time to allow some stars to make appearances on late evening shows.

Before the cruise, TV stars were entertained on the dock by Hawaiian singers and dancers from Sea Isle, Honolulu Harry and Waikiki Village.

TV agency head Tim Morrow, husband of Kay, gets off a good one as far as Mary Hartline is concerned, but singer Johnny Desmond disagrees.

That's Chet Roble, pianist, with actress Toni Gilman. Stars from all networks were on hand, and all received leis and baby orchids.
Ready to cast off was this boat load. Mary Hartline, Tim and Kay Morrow and Toni Gilman. Toni’s husband, Buzz, is in the foreground. Right: this off-guard photo of Hank Graut and Studs Terkel was snapped on the pier.

Weatherman Russ Reed took a peek at the sky and predicted a balmy night. He was right, too! Right: El Henry (in felt hat) took over job of navigator for this boat load, with help of Mr. and Mrs. Haak Grant, and Jim Duffy.

Sig Sakowicz, newspaper columnist, boards ship. Right: Harold and Marie Isbell and twins are helped into the launch carrying Kay Westfall, husband Grant Bruce, Bob Murphy, George and Martha Menard, Dean and Jeff Linger.

A gentleman who makes an honest buck publicizing the activities of a television network said to me the other day, rather wistfully:

"Look at these television stars and producers taking 13-week vacations this summer. Chasing off to Europe and out west. What a life. Do you think that by any chance they spend a little of that 13 weeks thinking how they can improve their shows?"

No, I don't. Maybe they—and some of the non-vacationers too—might be interested in a few stray thoughts on the general subject of improving television shows.

We could start with what is probably the most unanimous suggestion of Chicago area televiwers: Mr. Berle, keep your pants on next fall.

To NBC, find a show for Jerry Lester. The man is vacationing now, and to date the network which holds his contract hasn't announced any plans for the comedian many of us regard as the funniest in the business.

To the wrestling trust, put on an honest wrestling match by A.A.U. rules, if only for the novelty, or to let the fans see the difference between your exhibitions and wrestling.

To some sponsor—any sponsor. Who'll be the one to wake up to the fact that we are being deluged with variety shows Saturday nights, and viewers would be grateful for a good dramatic show. A couple of years ago you erred in thinking Saturday nights were poison, and gave us nothing. Then everybody came to life at once and slugged us with song and dance programs. Saturday night is a party night with many folks, but many others regard it as amateur night, and like to stay home and be moderately quiet. And we're fed up with an endless diet of jokes and buck and wings.

To Oscar Levant, grow up, or else stick to the 21 or whatever pub seems to appreciate that particularly warped brand of humor.

To Howdy Doody, tone down about 20 decibels. Kids shout enough as it is, without all that encouragement from you.

To Video Theater, Danger, and the rest of the half-hour dramatic programs, take a lesson from Chicago's Short Story Playhouse and put the commercials at the start and finish, and not in the middle where they destroy the continuity of the short play.

To the auto dealers, give up on "I Met A Murderer." Everybody's seen it at least three times.

To James Melton, you're making Jack Haley look better every week.

To Clint Youle, I don't know whether this has been suggested, but have you tried the Farmer's Almanac?
PERSONALITY . . . a movement of the hands . . . vivacity . . . an expression of the eyes . . . spontaneous humor . . . warmth of smile . . . charm . . . one or all of these qualities can lift some television personalities above the group.

Personality is of prime importance in the fledgeling industry of television where beauty of face and figure alone cannot guarantee success. The medium demands a vibrant person; the star must possess a provocative personality.

Because they are warm, vivacious, sincere and charming, we nominate as television's most provocative women:

Lilli Palmer
Roberta Quinlan
Nina Foch
Faye Emerson
Kay Westfall
Robin Chandler

Whom would you nominate?
FROM a handsome carriage house on Chicago’s near north side, Fran Allison and her husband, Archie Levinton have created a ranch home in the city. Ranch oak furniture, plank oak flooring with walnut pegs and warm desert tones throughout the rooms set the tempo.

Fran and Archie bought their home four years ago and recently remodelled and redecorated the second floor to conform with their tastes. Joe Lockwood, costume designer of the “Kukla, Fran and Ollie” show, planned the interiors.

Soft beige walls and ceilings are used throughout the home, which includes living room, dining room, kitchen and two bedrooms. A beautiful studio is nearing completion on the first floor of the building and this Fran feels will become their favorite room.

The monotone color theme creates a feeling of spaciousness in the rooms, a feeling that is enhanced by the mural over the stair well on the second floor. The mural painted by a Chicago artist depicts a desert scene.

Archie laid all of the floors on the second floor and of his initial tries Fran tells an amusing story. Archie purchased an electric saw to speed the work along. One day when Fran returned from the studio, she found Archie assembling the equipment and Ransom Sherman reading the directions to him!

“Well,” said Fran. “I said Ranse I love you and I think you’re a wonderful person but you are absolutely the last person I’d want to read those instructions to Archie.’”

Anyone who ever watched the “Ransom Sherman Show” will know why!

A white brick, natural fireplace at one end of the living room has a striking planting of banked greenery decorating the mantel. Their television set is built into an adjacent wall, with a sectional sofa on the opposite wall. Two handsome square tables, one of parquet flooring from a French castle and the other a copy, flank the sofa. Soft green carpeting is used in the room.
A beautiful Beidemeier clock provides another century touch in the living room and Fran refuses to have the clock set in running order until she finds a way of softening the chimes.

In the dining room, ranch oak tables and chairs have been combined with a handsome credenza of Circassian walnut. Draperies in an abstract design, greenery and unusual lighting fixtures add to the decor of the room.

A gay Mexican paper brightens the tiny kitchen where Fran enjoys making her favorite dishes when she can snatch an extra minute from the studios or recording dates.

The bedroom has twin beds of ranch oak with brown webbing headboards. Brown draperies and brown spreads carry out the color theme.

The new first floor studio was designed by Bob Burton and provides built-in accommodations for the Levingtons' movie projectors, sound equipment and a tape recorder. At the opposite end of the large room, the television set, phonograph and movie projector speaker is installed.

One wall will contain additional wardrobe space for Fran and a wood panelled powder room. Varied textures have been used on the walls for interest; beige grass cloth, walnut panelling and white brick paper are the three choices of the decorator.

Fran will have her piano and desk in here. She will be able to work out arrangements, make recordings and play back to determine their effectiveness.

Through ingenuity in choice of furniture and decor, Fran and Archie have achieved a modern ranch house in the heart of the city.

Fran Allison is seen on "Kukla, Fran and Ollie" which returns to WNBQ in September. It will be sponsored by Procter & Gamble, National Biscuit Co., RCA and Time magazine. She records for RCA Victor.
Ruth Desmond's Spaghetti Sauce

(Some proportions optional to taste)
1 chopped clove of garlic
3 tablespoons of olive oil
1 can of tomato paste
1 large can of tomatoes
1½ teaspoons of salt (optional to taste)
1 bay leaf
½ teaspoon of sugar
a pinch of oregano
1 small green pepper (chopped)
1 small onion (chopped)
¼ cup of chopped parsley
½ cup of chopped celery
1 cup of water (optional)

Place olive oil in sauce pan, add clove of garlic and let simmer gently for about three minutes. Add tomato paste and can of tomatoes (strained). Stirring all this time, add water. Add salt, bay leaf, sugar, oregano and all the rest of the ingredients. Let this simmer slowly for 1½ to 2 hours with lid of pan off, stirring occasionally. (If thinner sauce is desired, add a little more water after one hour.)

Spaghetti:
Add spaghettini (1 package) to 2½ quarts of boiling water (water having been salted with 1½ teaspoons of salt). After spaghetti once more comes to a boil, let boil ten minutes. Drain and serve with sauce.
LETTERS to the editor

I’m surprised Ernie In Kovacsland hasn’t got a sponsor. Ernie has a new and funny brand of humor. I really enjoy his program.

Chicago, Ill. FRANCES FITZPATRICK

Lately I have been thinking of how to raise money for the cure of Cancer and other such diseases. I wonder if you could help me with this plan? I think if all the young singing stars (male and female) were grouped on a 24-hour marathon, it would be great.

Chicago, Ill. MISS DIANNE POOCOCK

Ed. Note: Both Jim Moran and Irv Kupcinet stage marathons annually for cancer and cerebral palsy fund raising campaigns.

Something happened on TV last night which made me very unhappy. If I tell you about it, maybe I can forget it. It was a play called “If I Should Die,” the story of four marines trapped on a ridge in Korea... I was deeply moved because I realized that very thing could be happening at the moment... Then, these two jokers who do the beer commercial for that program forget all about the play and start kidding around about silly things. They laugh, joke, punch each other and Mama goes out in the kitchen for some beer to take their minds off the play. I felt as though someone had started a poker game in church... I hope that revolting commercial at the end of the play is not representative of the attitude of the public toward this war. If it is, we might as well give up right now.

Glenview, Ill. MRS. E. L. GOELZ

I think one of the most refined programs on TV is Celebrity Time, with Conrad Nagel. It is not only refined, but educational as well. Conrad Nagel is just as refined now as when he appeared in the movies, only of course he has become more matured which adds to his neat appearance.

Chicago, Ill. MRS. HELEN J. GURGONE

Received KPBC-TV, Houston, Texas, channel 2 while changing channels. Program received was the “Curley Fox” show.

ERNIE SIMON
THE CURBSTONE CUT-UP

"But I spent $20,000 buying soap for the wrappers."

"Lucky Luciano" is really Joe Merillo, WBKB fellow employee, who pops out with the weather sign for Ernie. When things get dull, the two of them talk to each other in Italian.

Stooge Irwin Berke has been introduced as the composer of Nature Boy, Irving Berlin, Felton Feinschreiber—piano tuner for Harry S. Truman, and Charles Green, vice president of RCA, who wrote "The Thing." Not only has he been killed in auto and train wrecks, but has taught piano to such celebrities as Al Morgan, and Two Ton Baker, based on his experience as a flagman with the railroads. Berke actually is a happy citizen associated with Mercury records.

Most of Ernie’s clowning comes to a close each night a few minutes before the sign-off. At that time he makes it a practice to grab some cute child, who may or may not kiss him. It’s just sentimental and real enough that it stamps him one of the biggest lovers of kids.

CHICAGO—Show business is a heartbreaker, and Our Town is no exception. Here's a story concerning a young local singer who's built up a tremendous teen-age following. He's handsome and single, with a bright TV future. His greatest fan was a beautiful young career girl who slaved for several years as his unpaid press agent. She boosted his career considerably and lost her soul to him in the process.

The payoff came recently when the vocal idol switched his interest to a rising fem singer, and called off his affair with the young press agent. But even in show business, there's a conscience. The last morning, before he left, he threw $30 on the dresser. . . . Little Bruce Lindgren, who plays Willie in "Mr. Wizard," is one of Chicago's youngest entertainers. . . . Motorola proxy Paul Galvin has been awarded an honorary Doctor of Laws by Loyola university of New Orleans. . . . Take a peek at the new daytime Earl Nightingale show via OFF GUARD. . . .

WGN-TV. He's one of the midwest's top performers.

Top personnel switches bring WENR-TV's crack salesman Karl Sutphin to Batten Barton Durstine & Osborn agency, while Schwimmer & Scott's TV director Al Sweetow moves to Sanders Rodkin agency. . . . Readers are asking where TV Forecast got those striking aquarium pictures for the recent Betty Whitney article. They were shot at Suwanee Water Gardens.

. . . George Menard, the "Fun & Features" emcee, knows a surgeon who gives his patients cut rates.

DeMet Pontiac is trying to give viewers a soft approach to car sales. That's why the Sunday drama series (WNBQ) called "Chicago Playhouse" refuses to show autos on TV, and limits its commercials to three short plugs. Franklyn MacCormack handles the emcee job in affable fashion. . . . Angel Casey, who's subbing for Dorsey Connors on channel 5 while the latter is on vacation, may wind up with a permanent TV berth as a result of her fine job.

The Quiz Kids are adopting a European orphan. They plan to bring her to this country for a visit on their WNBQ show. . . . WBKB cartoonist Bruce Newton claims the long-distance record for TV commuters. He travels over 100 miles a day to get to work.

. . . Bob Murphy and Kay Westfall are winding up their essay contest this week on WENR-TV. . . . Recent "Parade" winner on WBKB is Darice Richman, the child piano prodigy. . . . Spearhead of the local fight to gain an educational TV channel is George Jennings, the TV director of the Board of Education.

No wonder "Hollywood Junior Circus" sounds authentic. Producer Bill Heyer and writer George Anderson once worked together under the "Big Top."

FREE!—TV Interviews with Creighton, baseball ducats

By UNCLE HERBIE

BASEBALL fans, here's your opportunity to see your favorite team in action from reserved box seats and to appear on television as guests of TV Forecast magazine. Enjoy a leisurely afternoon at Wrigley Field or Comiskey Park and be interviewed on WGN-TV by sportscaster Harry Creighton... This new, exciting contest is open to youngsters and adults alike. Everyday, TV Forecast will award 4 reserved box seats for Cubs and Sox baseball games.

This contest is made possible by special arrangement with Nelson Brothers, Walgreen drug stores, United Airlines, and American Vitamin Associates.

Each week opens a new contest with new winners selected every day for all Cubs and Sox home games.

Contestants are urged to enclose their telephone numbers and youngsters are requested to name the player whose autograph they prefer on their baseball.

YOUNGSTERS WIN: Two reserved box seats for a Cubs or Sox baseball game plus an autographed baseball. And that's not all. The baseball will be awarded on Harry Creighton's pre-game "Lead-Off Man," show on WGN-TV, sponsored by Nelson Brothers at 1:10 p.m. from the ball park.

ADULTS WIN: Two reserved box seats for a Cubs or Sox home game. Winners to be interviewed after the ball game by Harry Creighton on "The Tenth Inning," television show sponsored by Walgreen's drug stores and the United Airlines.

FOLLOW THESE RULES: Write a brief letter explaining "Why I'd prefer to see a baseball game in person rather than on television..." That's all there is to it! Mail your entries to: Sports Editor, TV Forecast magazine, 185 North Wabash, Chicago 1, Ill.—Deadline this week: Wednesday, August 1.

HELLO - HELLO

DEAR BOSS:

Apparantly very few are disturbed by the introduction of a new policy on a network which has just recently undergone a change of management—the telecasting of a notorious strip teaser who has chosen TV apparently for respectability.

It's no secret I'm speaking about Mr. Minsky's bride, Dardy Orlando, the slim blonde that may be teasing you under the name of Lucia Fera.

Perhaps it was just a coincidence that this network's announced plans for improved programming and more stars came about the same time as Dardy's debut. Their lack of taste and apparent lack of consideration for Chicagoland viewers could result in a serious explosion unless some clarification is made. Frankly, some of the best shows have come out of the same network, like Studs Place and Pulitzer Prize Playhouse, so that the introduction of Dardy was somewhat a surprise.

Poppa Minsky is probably chuckling over the whole mess.
He's the one that stands to gain the most, as Dardy is displayed to thousands of potential customers. It seems shameful that TV will contribute a bigger box office for burlesque houses.

I'm not against people trying to better themselves, but am strongly against using a public medium like TV and victimizing the industry. Does Dardy intend to go into legitimate show business and stay in, or is this just a lark?

This could start a trend. Or am I too old fashioned? Can't you see the lineup for tomorrow night's television entertainment: Snokey Johnson, Gloria Love, Bubbles Bannister, and the whole crowd that moved out of south State and west Madison streets!

Solution to crossword puzzle given in next week’s issue.

When you connect the dots, you will see a member of the “Breezy, Don & Vera” show. Color the picture, then cut out only the picture and mail to Mollycues, TV Forecast, 185 N. Wabash Ave., Chicago 1. Deadline: August 7.

First prize is $1; second prize is 50 cents; next 12 prizes are 25 cents each.

Solution to last week’s code message—the flower for the month of August is the Poppy.

Mollycues, TV Forecast, 185 N. Wabash Ave., Chicago 1. Deadline: August 7.
SITTING and chatting at the Frisky Comiskey’s Park press room with Bill Veeck, the baseball tycoon, and sportscaster Jack Brickhouse; Veeck reminisced about the good ol’ days when he worked for the Cubs. Old man Wrigley took special pride in his ball park and the job of making it the “most beautiful park in the world” was left in the hands of Bill Veeck.

The wiry haired Veeck exclaimed: “I suggested that we put up vines all along the outfield walls—that was years ago you understand—and Wrigley went for it in a big way.

“I had a florist plant the vines and we figured in a couple of years we’ll have a nice row of ‘em . . . Then Wrigley tells me the next day he’s bringing all of his friends to see the vines he’s been bragging about . . . Didn’t do any good to explain they won’t be ready for a couple more years—the old man wanted them by the next day! He wasn’t going to be made a fool of!”

Bill leaned back in his chair laughing. “Man, I hustled those florists double time. We worked all afternoon, all evening, and all night stringing up fully grown vines over the entire outfield wall. We finished about 10:00 a.m. Wrigley walked into the park three hours later, beaming and proudly showing his friends the new vines.”

Cuffnotes: Chicago’s Jim Kearns handled the Pabst Golf tournament in Milwaukee shown on film over WBKB. It cost Pabst $50,000 about which $30,000 was returned at the gate. Pabst is determined to keep its name in front of sports fans even at the cost of promoting its own events. It leads us to one question—will they organize a boxing club to compete with the International Boxing Club now selling fights to theatre-TV?

Ed Allen, WBKB muscle man, is a weight lifter by hobby and plans to compete in the Mid-West tournaments . . . Another weight lifter with a physique deluxe is Paul Winchell . . . A. T. & T. plans to begin tests on the Omaha to Oakland short wave relay station next August. Odds are against completion in time to give the Coasters teevee of the World Series.

TV rights to the Sugar Bowl football classic went up for grabs last week. Gillette and ABC-TV had exclusive rights with the Maxon agency doing the leg-work . . . Comedian Jan Murray is organizing a baseball team made up of comedians only. So far, Milton Berle, Jerry Lester, Jack Leonard, and Jackie Gleason have agreed to join. Murray plans to play at vet hospitals in the New York area . . . A newcomer doing a bang up job as statistician for WBKB’s Joe Wilson is Dave Edell.

Derby skater Ken Monte, injured in an auto accident last November, has thrown aside his crutches and expects to strap on his skates later this month. Russ Massro, swift wheeling coach of the Westerners, swapped his skating uniform for one of Uncle Sam’s last June 25. . . Ah, with that last period we’ll begin packing our duds for a long-postponed vacation as guests of: the Hotel Astor in New York, the Stork Club, ABC-TV, CBS-TV, NBC-TV, and the Dumont network.

Filling in our column during the brief hiatus will be Jack Brickhouse, Tom Duggan and Joe Wilson. Next week Duggan guest columns for us and we hereby disclaim all responsibility of any and all opinions expressed as their own!

CHICAGO Roller Derby fans happily watched the return of their sport last week from Convention Hall over WENR-TV. The action will continue for five more weeks on Tuesdays and Thursdays (Check program listings for time and station). The warm-up sessions will be an exhibition round-robin of four of the six teams competing in the National Roller Derby League. The New Jersey Jolters, Brooklyn Red Devils, Washington Jets and the world champion New York Chiefs are providing the action.

The matches will run for five more exciting weeks and will be climaxed by the ceremony on Sept. 3 when some young skating beauty will be crowned as the Roller Derby's Queen for 1951.

TV Forecast readers and Derby fans are invited to cast their ballots for their favorite skaters. Three beautiful contestants vying for the title this season are Carmen Zeni of the Panthers, Gloria Clairbeaut of the Red Devils, and Arlynnee Buchman of the Jolters. All three girls are former Chicago and New York models. Fans desiring to vote are urged to fill out the enclosed ballot before the Aug. 20 deadline.
